All Fresh and Waiting.

Every department is about ready for the immensely increasing business here. This store is forging ahead with greater rapidity than Richmond has ever seen before. It's the store that Richmond has been needing for a long time, and probably would never have known if we had nt seen the gap and branched out with the store to meet the requirements.

This is the one store in Richmond that sells dry goods at the lowest of cash prices on long term payments. Any honest person can get credit here.

Few Words About Groceries.

People ask us daily how we manage to have such a nice, pleasant and large trade. We do not know the reason-perhaps our customers will answer that question better.

What we do is this; We believe in living and let live, and treat the people as they ought to be. As to our prices and quality of goods, it matters not what the goods are worth, if we succeed in buying very, very close we sell accordingly. We believe in quick sales and small profits, and see our customers reap the benefit of our success: As to our attentions and treating our customers, we leave it to the public generally to judge.
